

Partner search

Culture sub-Program

Strand/category	European cooperation projects 2018 - Category 1: Smaller scale cooperation projects
Deadline	11 December 2018

Cultural operator(s)

Name	Lamma Slam
Short description	Lamma Slam is an association created in 2016 following a movement by young slammers that had started in 2011 after the Tunisian revolution. Its main objectives are the promotion of slam poetry in Tunisia and of Tunisian oral art locally and abroad.
Contact details	President : Hatem Karoui Mail : hatem.slam@gmail.com Tel : 26 304 444

Project

Field(s)	Urban arts, essentially Slam poetry
Description	Lamma Slam is a collective of Tunisian slammers. The association organizes the national championship of SLAM. This idea was initiated in 2011 by the duo Hatem Karoui and Anis Zgarni who are both professional slammers, active on the national and international scene since 2007. At the end of each season Lamma Slam organizes an end-of-the-year show gathering the best performances, with the aim of giving young talent the chance to express themselves in a more professional setting and mark the beginning of their career on a stage. The show is also an opportunity to invite guest artists such as musicians, actors, singers, and poets to interact and improvise with slammers.

Partners searched

Countries

France, Belgium, U.K, Italy

Profile

Organisations that strive to pacify neighborhoods through citizen artistic practice.

Other

...